

Bonnie Benesh, PhD

Bonnie Benesh's passion is the development of human capacity through systemic reform and collaborative visioning.

Benesh works as a thought leader and change consultant with governments, public, and private entities in developing leadership for a new kind of future.

She currently serves as the founding CEO of the Think to DO Institute, launched in Curacao in October 2018.