

Prof. dr. Antonio Carmona Báez

Prof. dr. Antonio Carmona Báez is President of the University of St. Martin (USM).

In 2002, he earned his doctorate in the area of International Relations at the University of Amsterdam (UvA), where he has lectured at the departments of Political Science and International Development Studies (GPIO).

At the University of Puerto Rico (UPR) he taught Political Science and General Social Sciences, and conducted research on socio-economic development in Latin America and the Caribbean.

His current research agenda includes policies in Education, Public Services, Drugs, Gender and Sexuality.