

Charles do Rego

Charles do Rego, MSc MBA (Curaçao, 1946) conducts research in the field of social history and geography with a special interest in matters of immigration and social inclusion. He was active as project leader, change manager, advisor, director of public entities and was also in charge of elections at the national level. He received his academic degrees in Geography at the University of Nijmegen (1971) and in Business Administration at the Erasmus University (1991). In 1996, until his retirement in 2006, he was head of the Civil Registry Office and vice president of the Council for Elections. He was a member of the independent Advisory Council to the Government of Curaçao.

chalsdorego@yahoo.com.