

Prof. dr. Flora Goudappel

Professor. dr. Flora Goudappel is currently dean of the law school of the University of Curaçao dr. Moises da Costa Gomez en is a full professor of EU law at the same law school. She has a PhD from Erasmus School of Law in Rotterdam and held a Jean Monnet chair on EU trade law in the overseas territories at Erasmus School of Law.

Her research specializations are EU immigration and asylum law, EU citizenship and EU overseas territories law. She has published extensively on those topics. She organized a conference on EU asylum law at Erasmus School of Law in 2013, taught a course on 'Europe on the move' at The Hague University of Applied Sciences for several years, was a parttime researcher on borders and the Schengen system at the Clingendael Institute for International Relations. In Curaçao, she has been training the immigration service and the admission organisation, and has co-organized lectures and seminars on the situation concerning undocumented immigrants in Curaçao.