

Kelly Bendelow

Kelly Bendelow is a Protection Officer with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees covering Aruba and Curaçao, specializing in humanitarian response and international refugee law. Prior to this assignment, she has worked with UNHCR for over nine years in a variety of assignments including Ethiopia, Lebanon, Ecuador, and Geneva, in diverse areas such as general protection, livelihoods, humanitarian assistance, and resettlement.

